

THE TRUE KING'S KINGDOM

MEMORY VERSE

Blessing and honor and glory and power be to the one seated on the throne, and to the Lamb, forever and ever! Revelation 5: 13

John, the 'one that Jesus loved' as it says in the Gospels, catches a glimpse of the coming Kingdom. A glimpse of the TRUE King, and the everlasting kingdom. As heaven pulls back on its veil and John peers through, he sees the Lord seated on his throne and Jesus at his right hand. This is the perfect Kingdom, the everlasting Kingdom and the perfect King.

PRAYER POINTS

THE WORLD

Let's praise the Lord that we look forward to a time when "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will reign forever and ever." [Revelation 11:15]

THE NATION

Let's pray for our government, as they seek to balance the nation's short-term, medium-term and longer-term futures in the difficult decisions that they face.

THE CHURCH

Let's pray that, as a result of our life at Christ Central, many more would anticipate with joy the final victory of the true King.

GOING DEEPER

READ

REVELATION FOR YOU

Tim Chester

A really clear and concise summary of Revelation that's not weird, whacky or scary but helps you worship and challenges your discipleship. Great to read by yourself or with someone else.

WATCH OR LISTEN

JESUS UNVEILED

Andrew Wilson

The first sermon in Kings Church London's series on the Book of Revelation opens up the question of how we can read this book in a way that makes sense and gives us confidence and hope in Jesus.
